This disclosure set forth elsewhere herein is to fulfill that requirement.

It is acknowledged by Landlord and Tenant with respect to any reference in the Lease to liquidated damages, that the actual damages of the party being paid such damages are hard to calculate and that the liquidated damages referenced in the Lease are a reasonable pre-estimate of the party's actual damages and not a penalty.

a. Fee to Halt Dispossession Action: Landlord can file a dispossession action against Tenant if any rent or other fees and charges owed by Tenant are not paid in full by the Due Date. In the event that a dispossession action is filed against the Tenant and then dismissed prior to a court hearing because Tenant pays the amounts owed, Tenant shall also pay Landlord, as liquidated damages, the Fee to Halt Dispossession Action in the amount set forth elsewhere herein. This fee shall immediately be paid as additional rent along with all other amounts paid to halt the dispossession action.

In addition, Landlord and Landlord's agents may enter the Premises at any time to investigate potential emergencies. Evidence of water leaks, fire, smoke, foul odors, sounds indicating the possibility of an injured person or animal and other similar evidence of an emergency shall all be sufficient grounds for Landlord and Landlord's agents to enter Premises and Property for this purpose. During the last sixty (60) days of the term of the Lease, and during any period when Premises is being leased month to month, Landlord and Landlord's agents may also place a "for rent" or "for sale" sign in the yard or on the exterior of the Premises or on the Property, may install a lockbox and may show the Premises and the Property to prospective tenants or purchasers during the hours listed above. Tenant agrees to cooperate with Landlord and Landlord's agents who may show the Premises and/or Property to prospective tenants or buyers. In the event a lockbox is installed, Tenant shall secure keys, jewelry, prescription drugs and other valuables and agrees to hold Landlord and Landlord's agents harmless for any loss thereof. For each occasion where the access rights described above are denied, Tenant shall pay Landlord the Denial of Access Fee as liquidated damages in the amount set forth elsewhere herein.

c. Unauthorized Pet Charge: Except for those Pets authorized by a Pet Addendum attached to this lease (if applicable), no other animals are authorized to be within the Premises. This includes, but is not limited to, animals which belong to guests or animals which are only staying temporarily. d. Unauthorized Smoking Within Premises: Many people are very sensitive to the smell of smoke whether cigarette, cigar, or any other substances and removing smoke odor is costly. If Tenant is NOT authorized to smoke within the Premises as set forth elsewhere herein and Landlord or Manager note that smoking has occurred within the Premises, Tenant agrees to pay Landlord the Unauthorized Smoking within the Premises charge as described elsewhere herein.

e. Utility Connection Charge: In order for Landlord or Manager to perform an accurate move out inspection, utilities to the Premises need to be on. All other terms of the existing Lease shall remain the same. The additional term shall begin on the first day following the end of the preceding term unless either party gives notice to the other prior to end of the then current term of that party's decision to terminate the Lease at the end of the current term. c. Neighborhood Conditions: Tenant acknowledges that in every neighborhood there are conditions which different tenants may find objectionable. It shall be Tenant's duty to become acquainted with any present or future neighborhood conditions which could affect the Premises or Property including without limitation land-fills, quarries, high-voltage power lines, cemeteries, airports, stadiums, odor producing factories, crime, schools serving the Premises and Property, political jurisdictional maps and land use and transportation maps and plan. If Tenant is concerned about the possibility of a registered sex offender residing in a neighborhood in which Tenant is known to have been manufactured in the house, in which Tenant is interested, Tenant should review the Georgia Violent Sex Offender Registry available on the Georgia Bureau of Investigation Website at www.gbi.georgia.gov and the National Clandestine Laboratory Register – Georgia at www.dea.gov.

Rent shall not abate nor shall Tenant be entitled to terminate this Lease if the damage or destruction of Premises, whether total or partial, is the result of the negligence of Tenant or Tenant's household or their invitees, licensees, or guests.

3.8 MORTGAGEE'S RIGHTS.

Tenant's rights under this Lease shall at all times be automatically junior and subordinate to any deed to secure debt which is now or shall hereafter be placed on the Premises or Property. 3.9 GAR FORMS.

The Georgia Association of REALTORS®, Inc. ("GAR") issues certain standard real estate forms. These GAR forms are frequently provided to the parties in real estate transactions. No party is required to use any GAR form. Since these forms are generic and written with the interests of multiple parties in mind, they may need to be modified to meet the specific needs of the parties using them. If any party has any questions about his or her rights and obligations under any GAR form he or she should consult an attorney. The parties hereto agree that the GAR forms may only be used in accordance with the licensing agreement of GAR. While GAR forms may be modified by the parties, no GAR form may be reproduced with sections removed, altered or modified unless the changes are visible on the form itself or in a stipulation, addendum, exhibit or amendment thereto.

3.10 ADDITIONAL RULES & REGULATIONS.

In addition to the rules and regulations generally listed in this Agreement, the following additional rules also apply: Tenants must follow the Home Owner's Association Guidelines for the neighborhood. Make sure that you are familiar with these rules. If fines are incurred, they will be charged to the Tenant.

3.11 BEWARE OF CYBER FRAUD:

Fake e-mails attempting to get you to wire money to criminal computer hackers are increasingly common in real estate transactions. Under this scam, computer hackers fraudulently assume the online identity of the actual mortgage lender, closing attorney and/or real estate broker with whom you are working in the real estate transaction. Posing as a legitimate company, they then direct you to wire money to them. In many cases, the fake e-mail is sent from what appears to be the authentic web page of the legitimate company responsible for sending the wiring instructions. You should use great caution in wiring funds based solely on wiring instructions sent to you by e-mail. Independently verifying the wiring instructions with someone from the company sending them is the best way to prevent fraud. In particular, you should treat as highly suspect any follow up e-mails you receive from a mortgage lender, closing attorney and/or real estate broker directing you to wire funds to a revised account number. Never verify wiring instructions by calling a telephone number provided along with a second set of wiring instructions since you may end up receiving a fake verification from the computer hackers trying to steal your money. Independently look up the telephone number of the company who is supposed to be sending you the wiring instructions to make sure you have the right one.

4. Addendums

4.1 NON-REFUNDABLE HOLDING FEE DISCLOSURE

The Holding Fee is typically equal to one (1) month's rent. Disciple Property Management will advise the applicant(s) of the exact amount of the Holding Fee due for the applicant(s) after the completed Application with credit check has been processed. The Holding Fee and any applicable Pet Fees must then be paid within 24 hours/1 business day of an approved application to "hold" the property from other applicants. If the Holding Fee and any applicable Pet Fees have not been paid within those 24 hours, the property will again become available for other approved applicants to lease.

If the applicant pays the Holding Fee and then fails to enter into a lease, the applicant shall FORFEIT the HOLDING FEE.

When the lease is signed the HOLDING FEE transfers to a Refundable Security Deposit minus $200.00, which becomes a Non-Refundable Administration Fee. ($100 for Savage Creek Apartments.)

4.2 IMPORTANT FACTS WHEN RENTING FROM DISCIPLE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT DISCLOSURE

1. All rents along with pest control are due on the 1st of the month each month. No exceptions. If the 1st is on a weekend, rent needs to be received the prior business day. If it is not here by the 1st with the pest control payment included, there will be a 10% Late Fee added to rental, pet, and pest control fees.
2. Military Personnel have the option to participate in the military allotment. We highly suggest that option be taken by all military tenants responsible for the rent and pest control fees, to ensure that payments are received on time if you happen to be in the field or unavailable when rent is due.
3. If you ever have a payment returned for non-sufficient funds, we will no longer accept checks or online/ACH payments from that point forward. We will require that you pay with certified funds. You will also be billed a Non-Sufficient Funds fee and late charge for each instance.

4. DO NOT PAINT! You must have written approval to paint. If you fail to get written approval, you will be charged to have the space repainted to a neutral color.
5. Please READ the Rental Maintenance Disclosure before calling in or submitting an online Maintenance Request. If the Maintenance Request is for something that is not covered and a technician comes out, Tenant will be charged a Service Call Fee and any other fees that we incurred from the Maintenance Request.

4.3 RENTAL MAINTENANCE DISCLOSURE

This Lease states that Disciple Property Management is responsible for any defects in the property which would create an unsafe living condition or render the property untenable. The following is a list of examples (not all-inclusive) that are NOT landlord responsibility:

TENANT IS RESPONSIBLE for the following maintenance and upkeep of the property.

1. Air conditioner filters must be changed every 30 days by Tenant. This allows your AC to work more efficiently, lowers your electric bill, and extends the life of the unit. You will be responsible to pay the SERVICE CHARGE if the AC repairman is called to your property for any HVAC concerns and they find dirty filters. You also need to keep the Air Intake clean and free from obstruction.
2. Vacuum the coils of the refrigerator and clean the pan and drain under the refrigerator often.
3. Keep the range hood and range free from grease and in good working order.
4. If a garbage disposal is furnished, do not put onions, bones, or hard items in the unit. We recommend grinding ice in the unit to keep the blades sharp.
5. If you have gas heat or a gas water heater, you are responsible for making sure the pilot light stays lit.
6. Keep all drain, garbage disposal, and sewer lines free of obstruction. TOILET LINES CAN EASILY BE BLOCKED. ONLY TOILET TISSUE, IN CONSERVATIVE AMOUNTS, SHOULD BE FLUSHED. IF A PLUMBER IS REQUIRED FOR A BLOCKAGE OF THIS NATURE, TENANT WILL INCUR THE RELATED EXPENSES.
7. Maintain the grounds of the property, such as cutting grass, weeding flower beds, and trimming shrubs. Also make sure to remove all obstructions in gutters and trash on property.
8. Educate yourself on how to test the breaker to see if it has flipped and check out breakers before calling for a repair. You should also educate yourself with the GFCI switches. Sometimes they trip and just need to be reset. This was covered in your Move In walk through. If a repair person is called out to fix a problem and it is simply a tripped breaker or a GFCI switch that needs to be reset, you will be charged for the service call.
9. Tenant is responsible for extermination of roaches, rats, ants, silverfish and fleas on a routine basis. This is part of why you are responsible for pest control each month.
10. Be mindful of where you place a hot grill. Hot grills will melt vinyl siding if placed too close. This would, obviously, be the Tenant's responsibility to repair.
11. As per Lease paragraph 19-N, Tenant is prohibited from painting without prior written approval from Disciple Property Management.

If a repairman (plumber, electrician, maintenance man, exterminator, etc.) is called out to your property and the problem was caused by your failure to perform any of the above routine maintenance OR the repairman cannot find an actual problem, you will be charged the entire service charge.

The SCRA allows individuals to break a lease when they go onto active duty, if the lease was entered into before going into active duty. Additionally, the act allows a service member to terminate a residential lease entered into while in the military, if the member received Permanent Change of Station (PCS) order, or orders to deploy for a period of not less than 90 days.

This protection covers "lease of premises occupied, or intend to be occupied, by a service member or a service member's dependents for a residential, professional, business, agricultural, or similar purpose.

To break a lease under these provisions, the service member must make the request in writing, and must include a copy of their orders (orders placing them on active duty, PCS order, or deployment orders.) The member may deliver the notification by hand, by commercial or by mail (return receipt requested.)

Termination Date for a Lease That Requires Monthly Rent:

The earliest termination date is 30 days after the first date on which the next payment is due, following proper notification of termination of lease. For example, if Sgt. John pays his rent on the first of every month, and he wishes to notify his landlord on the 18th of June (with a copy of his orders) that he wishes to terminate the lease under provisions of the SCRA, the earliest termination date would be 1 August. (The next rent would be due 1 July, and 30 days later is 1 August.)
